

TARIFF
MEDIATOR – VIKTOR DANOV

1. FEES FOR MEDIATION

1.1. Registration Fee - 100 BGN

The registration fee covers the initial processing and exchange of documents and the connection with the parties to the dispute. The registration fee is paid to initiate the mediation procedure and is not refundable if the other party to the dispute refuses to participate in mediation.

No registration fee is due if the parties to the dispute jointly submit an application for mediation.

1.2. The fee for mediation in disputes with material interest is formed depending on the amount of material interest, as follows:

- up to BGN 25,000 material interest - BGN 250 for a mediation session with a total duration of up to three hours;
- from BGN 25,000.01 to BGN 100,000 material interest - BGN 350 for a mediation session with a total duration of up to three hours;
- over BGN 100 000.01 material interest - BGN 450 for a mediation session with a total duration of up to three hours + 0.5% of the material interest for the whole mediation;

1.3. Mediation fee for non-material disputes, in family disputes related to personal relations and maintenance, in labor disputes:

- BGN 250 for a mediation session with a total duration of up to three hours.

1.4. Additional hours after a three-hour session are paid per hour as follows:

- the value of the session mentioned above for the particular type of dispute divided into three.

1.5. Fees for disputes with more than two parties, with a complex legal and factual situation, in cases of public interest, as well as other specific cases, are subject to individual negotiation.

2. TIME FRAME

2.1. Fees are paid in advance and are a condition for starting mediation sessions.

2.2. If mediation is required to reach an agreement for more than three hours, the parties will pay an additional mediation session of duration agreed between them and the mediator. Mediation continues after extra hours are paid.

3. RANGE OF FEES

3.1. Mediation fees include the organization and preparation of mediation, the provision of work space and technical materials, and the sessions of one or two mediators.

3.2. No additional fees are charged for the participation of a second mediator.

4. OTHER COSTS

4.1. In case other mediation costs need to be incurred, eg. language translation, transport, and/or hotel accommodation (in case of mediation in a settlement other than Sofia), rent of a hall, other expenses, such expenses shall be approved and paid in advance by the parties to the dispute.

4.2. When conducting mediation in a settlement other than Sofia, the time for traveling and preparation is charged per hour, amounting to 30% of the value specified in item 1.4. of this tariff.

5. DISTRIBUTION OF FEES AND COSTS BETWEEN DISPUTED PARTIES

5.1. These charges apply to the parties in common and are shared equally between the parties to the dispute or by agreement between them.

5.2. Costs are shared equally between the parties or are borne by the party requesting the activity to which the costs relate.

6. NON COMMITMENT TO THE AGREEMENT

6.1. Mediation fees are not tied to agreement or agreement performance.

6.2. No additional remuneration is due in the event of agreement.

6.3. Preparing an agreement is separate from the mediation service.

7. PAYMENT OF FEES

7.1. All mediation fees are paid in advance, at least 2 days prior to the date of the mediation session.

7.2. Paid charges are non-refundable after the first mediation session begins. In the event that a party or parties waive the procedure on the day before the first mediation session has commenced, the fee paid in advance shall be returned, with a deduction of 20% of it for administrative expenses.